RETORT POUCHES TECHNOLOGY

"Japanese technology 4-layer aluminum composite packaging is NASA food packaging technology for astronauts with multiple layers of food protection."

POLYPROPYLENE

Layer that directly contacts with food

- Colorless, odorless, tasteless, non-toxic
- Has antioxidant properties, steam, grease and other gases
- High durability, high toughness

NYLON

- Scratch resistance

ALUMINUM FOIL

Protection layer

- Protection from light, gases and odors
- Prolonged storage time

POLYESTER

Outer layer

- Easy to print on the surface
- Durable

RETORT POUCHES TECHNOLOGY

"Utilizing multi-layer packaging technology in accordance with modern global food preservation standards, this solution helps maintain the product's original flavor, texture, and food safety over an extended period—without the use of preservatives."

WHITE CPP (CAST POLYPROPYLENE)

Innermost layer, in direct contact with food

- Food-safe, odorless, and tasteless
- Excellent heat resistance, suitable for reheating processes
- Helps keep rice soft and fluffy, preventing dryness

ONY15 (NYLON)

Intermediate barrier layer

- Superior oxygen and gas barrier properties
- Helps prevent the ingress of microorganisms
- Preserves the rice's freshness and natural flavor

PET12 (POLYETHYLENE TEREPHTHALATE)

Outermost layer

- High rigidity and mechanical strength
- Protects the package from impact and abrasion
- Maintains stable and durable package shape
